These troglodyte villages are exciting places to explore. One of these, together with the surrounding 'lunar' landscape, was the set for the aforementioned Tatooine location. Scenes from Steven Spielberg's 'Raiders of the Lost Ark' were also filmed here. Next, on the way to Sousse, stop by El Jem's spectacular Roman amphitheatre. This Colosseum-like structure, seemingly in the middle of nowhere, is the third largest of its kind in the world - dating from AD 238 - but is remarkably well preserved and quickly transforms you back to the Roman days of gladiators and chariot races. Lastly, make your way along the Mediterranean coast to Sousse.

Proceed to visit the oldest monument in the city - the Ribat which was built on old byzantine foundations and was a fortress of the Almoravid era.
